ADMINISTRATOR OF THE GOVERNMENT

Up to May 7, 1901. it was provided by Royal Letters Patent that the "powers granted His Excellency may in the case of his death, incapacity or absence, be given to the Lieutenant-Governor for the time being of Canada, or in his absence to such person as Her Majesty might, by warrant, appoint to be Administrator, or in the absence of such Lieutenant-Governor or Administrator to the Senior Military Officer for the time being in command of Her Majesty's regular Forces in the Dominion".

Upon the date mentioned a dormant Comm. passed under the Royal Sign Manual and Signet appointing the Chief Justice for the time being of the Supreme Court of Canada, or in the case of the death, incapacity, removal or absence from Canada of the Chief Justice, the Senior Judge of the Supreme Court of Canada, to be Administrator of the Government of the Dominion in the event of the death, incapacity, removal or absence of the Governor-General.

The Royal Letters Patent of June 15, 1905, which provided for the change in the designation of His Excellency's office from that of "Governor-General in and over the Dominion of Canada" to that of "Governor-General and Commander-in-Chief in and over the Dominion of Canada", contained the same provision as to the Administrator as the dormant Commission, and that instrument, being thus rendered superfluous, was withdrawn and cancelled.

The Administrator is vested with all the powers and authorities granted to the Governor-General by letters patent or otherwise. (See Supreme Court of Canada.)

THE DOMINION OF CANADA

Canada occupies the northern half of the North American Continent with the exception of Alaska and Greenland, extending in longitude from Cape Spear, Newfoundland, at 52° 37' W, to Mount St. Elias, Yukon Territory, at 141° W, a distance of 88° 23' or 3,223 miles. In latitude it stretches from Middle Island in Lake Erie, at 41° 41' N, to the North Pole. The northernmost point of land is Cape Columbia on Ellesmere Island, at 83° 07' N, and the straight-line distance from Middle Island to Cape Columbia is 2,875 miles.

In shape, Canada resembles a distorted parallelogram with its four corners making important salients. In the north the salient formed by the Arctic Archipelago, which penetrates deep into the Arctic basin, guards the northern approaches to the Continent from Europe and Asia and makes Canada neighbour to the Union of Soviet Socialist Republics. In the south the salient of peninsular Ontario thrusts far into the heart of the United States. In the east the salient of Labrador and the Island of Newfoundland commands the shortest crossings of the North Atlantic Ocean and links Canada geographically with Britain and France. In the west the broad arc of land between Vancouver in southern British Columbia and Whitehorse in Yukon Territory provides the shortest crossings of the North Pacific Ocean between continental North America and the Far East. Canada thus lies at the crossroads of contact with the principal powers and some of the most populous areas of the world.

In size, Canada is the largest country in the Western Hemisphere and the second largest country in the world. Its area of 3,851,809 sq. miles may be compared with that of the Union of Soviet Socialist Republics, 8,649,512 sq. miles, the United States of America (including Alaska and Hawaii), 3,615,214 sq. miles, and Brazil, 3,286,478 sq. miles. It is more than forty times the size of Britain and eighteen times that of France. The immense size of the country, while encompassing many resources and seeming to afford much scope for settlement, imposes its own burdens and limitations, particularly because much of the land is mountainous and rocky or is under an arctic climate. The developed portion is probably not more than one third of the total; the occupied farm land is less than 8 p.c. and the currently accessible productive forest land 19 p.c. of the total.

The territories which now constitute the Dominion of Canada came under the British flag at various times, some by settlement and others by conquest or cession. Nova Scotia (Acadia) was discovered by the Cabots, in the service of King Henry VII, in 1497. The part of Canada, now forming the Province of Quebec was discovered by Jacques Cartier, in the service of King Francis I of France, in 1534. The colony of Halifax was founded in 1749. By the treaty of Utrecht (1713) Acadia and the Hudson Bay Territory (Hudson Bay was discovered by Henry Hudson in 1610) were acknowledged to be British Territory. The Hudson Bay company's charter, conferring right of government over the territory now known as the Provinces of Manitoba, Saskatchewan, Alberta and the North-West Territories, was granted in 1670. The old French Colony of Canada was surrendered by the capitulation of Montreal, signed September 8, 1760 and along with the Prince Edward Island, and part of the present Province of New Brunswick, formally ceded to Great Britain by France under the Treaty of Paris, signed Feb. 10, 1763.

Vancouver Island was acknowledged to be British by the Oregon Boundary Treaty of 1846, and British Columbia was occupied in 1858.

As originally constituted, the Dominion of Canada was composed of the provinces of Ontario, Quebec, Nova Scotia, and New Brunswick. They were united under the provisions of an Act of the Imperial Parliament (30 Victoria, Chapter III) passed in 1867, and commonly cited as "The British North America Act, 1867," although its full official designation originally was:—"An Act for the Union of Canada, Nova Scotia and New Brunswick, and the government thereof, and for the purposes connected therewith." This Act received the Royal assent March 29th, 1867, and came into effect by virtue of Royal Proclamation, July 1st, 1867. This Act expressly provides that the Constitution of the Dominion shall be "similar in principle to that of the United Kingdom" (1st clause), so that the executive authority shall be vested in the Sovereign of Great Britain and Ireland, and carried on in her name by a Governor-General and Council "to aid and advise in the government of Canada, to be styled the Queen's Privy Council for Canada." (Clauses 9, 10 and 11). Provision was made in the Act for the Admission of British Columbia, Prince Edward Island, The North-West Territories, and Newfoundland into the Dominion (Clause 146). Newfoundland entered Confederation, March 31, 1949. In 1869 the extreme region known under the various designations of "Rupert's Land," "the Hudson Bay Territory," and "the North-West Territory," was added to the Dominion by purchase from the Hudson Bay Company. The Province of Manitoba was set apart out of a portion of it (32-33 Victoria, Chap. 3), and admitted into the Confederation, July 15, 1870.

July 20, 1871, the Province of British Columbia, and July 1, 1873, the Provinces of Prince Edward Island, respectively entered the confederation.

June 25, 1886, the Royal Assent was given to "An Act respecting the representation in the Parliament of Canada of Territories which for the time being form part of the Dominion of Canada, but are not included in any Province," commonly cited as "The British North America Act, 1886," (49-50 Victoria, Chapter XXXV).

This Act provides that the Parliament of Canada may, from time to time, make provisions for the representation in the Senate and House of Commons of Canada, or in either of them, of any Territories which, for the time being, form part of the Dominion of Canada but are not included in any Province thereof.

The Provinces of Alberta and Saskatchewan were formed from the provisional districts of Alberta, Athabaska, Assiniboia and Saskatchewan (4-5 Edward VII, Chap. 3 and 42), and were admitted to the Union as Provinces on September 1st, 1905.

During the first session of the 12th Parliament a bill was passed extending the areas of Manitoba, Ontario, and Quebec north-ward by adding to those provinces portions of North-West Territory.

Population:—Census of 1911, 7,207,000; Census of 1921, 8,788,000; Census of 1931, 10,376,000; Census of 1941, 11,507,000; Census of 1951, 13,893,208; Census of 1956, 16,081,000; Census June 1961, 18,238,000; Census June 1966, 20,015,000; (Estimated October 1970), 21,489,000.

THE GOVERNMENT OF CANADA

The present Canadian system of government which was established under the British North America Act of 1867, is a Federal Union, the first of its kind in the British Empire. It comprises a general or central government controlling matters essential to the development, the permanency and the unity of the Dominion as a whole, and also a number of provincial governments having the control and management of certain clearly defined local matters naturally and conveniently falling within their jurisdiction. These several governments are administered in strict accordance with the principles of British parliamentary government.

The executive Power of the Government of the Dominion of Canada, as also the chief command of the military and naval forces, is vested in the Queen, represented by the Governor-General, appointed by Her Majesty the Queen and advised by a Cabinet chosen from members of the Queen's Privy Council for Canada, and consisting of ministers holding departmental offices, besides, often, one or more ministers without portfolios. The government holds office as long as it has the confidence of the popular branch of Parliament.

According to the B. N. A. Act, 1867, Sec. 55, where a Bill passed by the Houses of Parliament is presented to the Governor-General for the Queen's assent, he shall declare, according to his discretion, but subject to the provisions of the mentioned Act and to Her Majesty's instruction, either that he assents thereto in the Queen's name, or that he withholds the Queen's assent, or that he reserves the Bill for the signification of the Queen's pleasure.

Disallowance of Bill—The present constitutional position is that the power of disallowance can no longer be exercised in relation to Dominion Legislation.

As to the reservation of bills, said reservation could take place only upon the advice of Her Majesty's Government in the Dominion of Canada as it would not be in accordance with constitutional practice for advice to be tendered to Her Majesty by Her Majesty's Government in the United Kingdom against the views of the Government of the Dominion concerned.

THE PARLIAMENT OF CANADA

The British North America Act, 1867, provides:—

"There shall be one Parliament for Canada, consisting of the Queen, an Upper House styled the Senate, and the House of Commons." (Clause 17.)

"There shall be a Session of the Parliament of Canada once at least in every year, so that twelve months shall not intervene between the last Sitting of the Parliament in one Session and its first Sitting in the next Session." (Clause 20.)

"The Governor-General shall, from time to time, in the Queen's name, by instrument under the Great Seal of Canada, summon and call together the House of Commons." (Clause 38.)

The Parliament and Government of Canada (Sec. 132 B.N.A. Act), possess all powers necessary or proper for performing the Obligations of Canada or of any Province thereof, as Part of the British Empire, towards Foreign Countries, arising under Treaties between the Empire and such Foreign Countries.

Either the English or the French language may be used by any person in the Debates of the House of the Parliament of Canada and of the Houses of the Legislation of Quebec, and both these languages are used in the respective records and Journals of those Houses; and either of those languages may be used by any person or in any Pleading or Process or in issuing from any Court of Canada established under the B.N.A. Act and in or from all or any of the Courts of Quebec.

As the Dominion of Canada possesses a system of federal government, her legislative powers are limited to certain subjects of Dominion or National import, set forth in Section 9 of the British North America Act of 1867, as follows:—

"91. It shall be lawful for the Queen, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Senate and House of Commons, to make laws for the Peace, Order and Good Government of Canada, in relation to all matters not coming within the Classes of Subjects by this Act assigned exclusively to the Legislatures of the Provinces, and for greater certainty but not as to restrict the Generality of the foregoing Terms of the Section, it is hereby declared that (notwithstanding anything in this Act) the exclusive Legislative Authority of the Parliament of Canada extends to all matters coming within the Classes of Subjects next hereinafter enumerated, that is to say:—

- " 1. The Public Debt and Property.
  - " 2. The Regulation of Trade and Commerce.
  - " 3. The Raising of Money by any Mode or System of Taxation.

THE SENATE OF CANADA

According to the British America North Act, 1867, the Senate as originally constituted was to consist of 72 members; 24 for the Province of Ontario, 24 for Quebec and 24 for the Maritime Provinces (Nova Scotia and New Brunswick). Qualifications were laid down as follows: Must be a British Subject; must be thirty years of age; must be possessed of real property, free of all incumbrances, to the value of $4,000; must be a resident of the province for which he is appointed. Senators are appointed by the Governor-General. A Senator may by writing resign his seat. His place becomes vacant (1) if for two consecutive sessions of Parliament he fails to attend; (2) if he becomes a subject or citizen of a foreign power; (3) if he is adjudged bankrupt or insolvent or applies for the benefit of any law relating to insolvent debtors, or becomes a public defaulter; (4) if he is attainted of treason or convicted of felony or of any infamous crime; (5) if he ceases to qualify in respect of property. The Governor General in Council appoints the Speaker of the Senate, and the Clerk and the Gentleman usher of the Black Rod. The debates and proceedings of the Senate are governed by Rules and Orders modelled to a considerable extent after those of the House of Lords and differing very considerably from those of the House of Commons. Thus honourable gentlemen, rising to speak, address themselves to the "Honourable Senators", composing the House, and not to "Mr. Speaker," as in the House of Commons.

Each of the Senators from Quebec is appointed to represent one of 24 divisions corresponding with former electoral divisions of the old Province of Lower Canada. Senators for other provinces are not appointed for any designated divisions, but the practice of assuming distinctive territorial designations prevails. A popular practice of Senators who have formerly sat in the House of Commons is to adopt as their designations the titles of their former constituencies. Several are content to be designated as "from" the city or town in which they reside. Senators must continue to reside in the province from which they are appointed.

The first increase in the membership of the Senate took place in 1871, when Manitoba and British Columbia, upon entering the Confederation, were awarded two and three seats respectively. In 1873 Prince Edward Island, upon entering Confederation, was given four members, the representation of Nova Scotia and New Brunswick being reduced by two senators each. In 1882 Manitoba was given an additional member and in 1892 another. In 1888 the North-West Territories were given two senators. In 1904, in virtue of the Act 3 Edward VII, Chapter 42, the representation of the North-West Territories was increased to four. Upon creation of the Provinces of Alberta and Saskatchewan in 1905, each was allotted 4 seats in the Senate, or eight seats between them.

The Senate was then constituted of 87 members as follows: — Ontario, 24; Quebec, 24; Nova Scotia, 10; New Brunswick, 10; Prince Edward Island, 4; British Columbia, 3; Manitoba, 4; Saskatchewan, 4; Alberta, 4.

In 1915 the British North America Act was amended increasing the number of Senators from 72 to 96. This measure provided that the detail of representation should be as follows:— Ontario, by 24 senators; Quebec, by 24 senators; the Maritime Provinces and Prince Edward Island, by 24 senators, 10 thereof representing Nova Scotia, 10 thereof representing New Brunswick and 4 thereof representing Prince Edward Island; the western provinces by 24 senators; 6 thereof representing Manitoba, 6 thereof representing British Columbia; 6 thereof representing Saskatchewan and 6 Alberta.

Through the addition of the Province of Newfoundland, the Senate now consists of 102 members. — By provinces, representation is as follows: Nfld., 6; P.E.I., 4; N.S., 10; N.B., 10; Que., 24; Ont., 24; Man. 6; Sask., 6; Alta., 6; B.C., 6. Total: 102.

The eligibility of women for appt. to the Senate of Canada was declared by the judicial Committee of the Privy Council in 1929, and in Feb. 1930, for the first time in the History of Canada a woman was appointed a Member of the Senate.

INDEMNITY.—The Speaker of the Senate is paid a salary of $9,000 per annum. (1953-54, c. 10, s. 1.)

For the sessions of each Parliament there shall be paid to every member of the Senate a sessional allowance at the rate of $12,000 per annum, subject to deductions for non-attendance. (1963, c. 14, s. 1.)

An annual expense allowance is payable at the rate of three thousand dollars per annum to each member of the Senate, subject to deductions for non-attendance. (1963, c. 14, s. 4.)

Tenure of office — Under the British North America Act, Senators were originally appointed for life, but by Chapter 4 of the statutes of 1965 a Senator appointed after June 2, 1965, holds his place in the Senate only until he attains the age of seventy-five years.

THE HOUSE OF COMMONS OF CANADA

The House of Commons of Canada is elected by the people for five years, unless sooner dissolved by the Governor General. Members require no property qualifications, but they must be of the age of 21, and Canadian citizens or other British subjects, not disqualified by law. The Speaker is chosen by the House at the opening sitting of the first session of each parliament.

The members are elected by constituencies and voting is by ballot.

The number of members of the House of Commons is regulated by the following clauses of the British North America Act, 1867, as amended in 1952:—

51. (1) Subject as hereinafter provided, the number of members of the House of Commons shall be two hundred and sixty-three and the representation of the provinces therein shall forthwith upon the coming into force of this section and thereafter on the completion of each decennial census be readjusted by such authority, in such manner, and from such time as the Parliament of Canada from time to time provides, subject and according to the following rules:—

1. There shall be assigned to each of the provinces a number of members computed by dividing the total population of the provinces by two hundred and sixty-one and by dividing the population of each province by the quotient so obtained, disregarding, except as hereinafter in this section provided, the remainder, if any, after the said process of division.

2. If the total number of members assigned to all the provinces pursuant to rule one is less than two hundred and sixty-one, additional members shall be assigned to the provinces (one to a province) having remainders in the computation under rule one commencing with the province having the largest remainder and continuing with the other provinces in the order of the magnitude of their respective remainders until the total number of members assigned is two hundred and sixty-one.

3. Notwithstanding anything in this section, if upon completion of a computation under rules one and two, the number of members to be assigned to a province is less than the number of senators representing the said province, rules one and two shall cease to apply in respect of the said province, and there shall be assigned to the said province a number of members equal to the said number of senators.

4. In the event that rules one and two cease to apply in respect of a province then, for the purpose of computing the number of members to be assigned to the provinces in respect of which rules one and two continue to apply, the total population of the provinces shall be reduced by the number of the population of the province in respect of which rules one and two have ceased to apply and the number two hundred and sixty-one shall be reduced by the number of members assigned to such province pursuant to rule three.

CHAMBRE DES COMMUNES

ARTICLE 93 DU RÈGLEMENT, SOUS FORME ABRÉGÉE, RELATIF AUX AVIS DE BILLS PRIVÉS

Les demandes de présentation de bills privés au Parlement doivent être annoncées dans la Gazette du Canada au moyen d'un avis exposant clairement et distinctement la nature et l'objet de la demande. Cet avis doit être signé par les requérants ou en leur nom, et porter l'adresse des signataires. S'il s'agit d'une loi de constitution légale d'une société, il doit mentionner le nom de la société projetée.

Lorsque la demande a trait à une loi constituant légalement une société créée en vue de la construction d'ouvrages dont l'établissement ou la mise en service pourraient intéresser tout particulièrement une localité quelconque, ou en vue de l'obtention de droits ou privilèges exclusifs, ou encore en vue de toute opération qui pourrait concerner les droits ou biens d'autrui, l'avis doit aussi être publié dans un journal important dans les diverses localités intéressées par la loi projetée.

Lorsque les ouvrages d'une société, qu'elle soit légalement constituée ou qu'il s'agisse de la constituer légalement, doivent être reconnus comme étant destinés à profiter au Canada d'une manière générale, l'avis doit énoncer cette intention expressément, et les requérants doivent faire parvenir une copie de cet avis, par lettre recommandée, au secrétaire de chaque comté ou municipalité intéressés, ainsi qu'au Secrétaire de la province où ces ouvrages sont ou pourront être situés. Cet avis doit être posté assez tôt pour arriver à destination au moins deux semaines avant la prise en considération du bill par le comité auquel il peut être déferé. La preuve de la signification de cet avis s'établit au moyen d'une déclaration statutaire.

Lorsque la demande a trait à une loi constituant légalement un établissement bancaire, une compagnie d'assurance, une société de fiducie, une société de prêts, ou une société industrielle non dotée de pouvoirs exclusifs, il suffit d'un avis dans la Gazette du Canada.

Lorsqu'il s'agit de modifier une loi de constitution légale d'une société existante, l'avis doit aussi être publié dans la localité où est situé le siège social de la société ou dans la localité où la société est autorisée à établir son siège social, et, lorsqu'il y a lieu, dans le chef-lieu de chaque comté ou district intéressés.

Tout avis de ce genre, qu'il soit inséré dans la Gazette du Canada ou dans un journal, doit être publié au moins une fois par semaine pendant une période de quatre semaines consécutives. Lorsque la demande provient des provinces du Québec ou du Manitoba, l'avis doit être publié en anglais et en français. La preuve que l'avis a été dûment publié, établie au moyen d'une déclaration statutaire, doit être envoyée au greffier de la Chambre et porter au dos l'indication: « Avis de bill privé ».

Pour plus de détails, voir les « Extraits du Règlement de la Chambre des communes » publiés dans la Gazette du Canada, ou s'adresser à notre bureau.

Le greffier de la Chambre des communes,
Alistair Fraser.

HOUSE OF COMMONS

CONDENSED STANDING ORDER 93 RESPECTING NOTICES FOR PRIVATE BILLS

Applications to Parliament for private bills shall be advertised in the Canada Gazette by notice stating clearly and distinctly the nature and objects of the application. Such notice shall be signed by or on behalf of the applicants with the address of the party signing the same. For an Act of incorporation the name of the proposed company shall be stated.

When the application is for an Act to incorporate a company for the construction of any works which in their construction or operation might specially affect a particular locality; for obtaining any exclusive rights or privileges; or for doing any matter or thing which in its operation would affect the rights or property of others, the notice shall also be published in a leading newspaper in the particular locality or localities which may be affected by the proposed Legislation.

If the works of any company (incorporated or to be incorporated) are to be declared to be for the general advantage of Canada, such intention shall be specifically mentioned in the notice; and the applicants shall cause a copy of such notice to be sent by registered letter to the Clerk of each county or municipality concerned as well as to the Secretary of the province in which such works are or may be located. Every such notice shall be mailed in time to reach its destination not later than two weeks before the consideration of the proposed bill by the committee to which it may be referred. Proof of such service of notice shall be established by statutory declaration.

When the application is for an Act to incorporate a banking, insurance, trust or loan company, or of an industrial company without any exclusive powers, the notice shall be published in the Canada Gazette only.

For amendments to Acts of incorporation, publication of notice shall also be made in the locality where the head office is situated or authorized to be, and, where applicable, in the principal place in each county or district affected.

All such notices inserted in the Canada Gazette or a newspaper shall be published at least once a week for a period of four consecutive weeks; and when originating in the Provinces of Quebec or Manitoba, shall be in both the English and French languages; and proof of due publication of notice established by statutory declaration shall be sent to the Clerk of the House, endorsed "Private Bill Notice".

For further particulars, see "Extracts of Standing Orders of the House of Commons" published in the Canada Gazette, or apply to this office.

Alistair Fraser,
Clerk of the House of Commons.

5. On any such readjustment the number of members for any province shall not be reduced by more than fifteen per cent below the representation to which such province was entitled under rules one to four of this subsection at the last preceding readjustment of the representation of that province, and there shall be no reduction in the representation of any province as a result of which that province would have a smaller number of members than any other province that according to the results of the then last decennial census did not have a larger population; but for the purposes of any subsequent readjustment of representation under this section any increase in the number of members of the House of Commons resulting from the application of this rule shall not be included in the divisor mentioned in rules one to four of this sub-section.

6. Such readjustment shall not take effect until the termination of the then existing Parliament.

(2) The Yukon Territory as constituted by chapter forty-one of the Statutes of Canada, 1901, shall be entitled to one member, and such other part of Canada not comprised within a province as may from time to time be defined by the Parliament of Canada shall be entitled to one member. (23)

51A. Notwithstanding anything in this Act a province shall always be entitled to a number of members in the House of Commons not less than the number of senators representing such province. (24)

In the meantime, however, under the terms of a bill assented to on Feb. 18, 1949 (an Act to approve the Terms of Union of Newfoundland with Canada) provision was made for the Province of Newfoundland to be represented by seven members in the H. of C. This brought the number of members of the 21st Parliament, elected June 27, 1949, to 262 members.

2. This Act may be cited as the British North America Act, 1952, and the British North America Acts, 1867 to 1951, and this Act may be cited together as the British North America Acts, 1867 to 1952.

52. The number of members of the House of Commons may be from time to time increased by the Parliament of Canada, provided the proportionate Representation of the Provinces prescribed by this Act is not thereby disturbed.

At Confederation (1867) the House of Commons consisted of 181 members of which Ontario returned 82, Quebec 65, Nova Scotia, 19; and New Brunswick, 15. During the fourth session of the 1st Parliament the representation was increased to 191, Manitoba (4 members) and British Columbia (6 members) having entered Confederation.

The representation in the 2nd Parliament (July 8, 1872, to Jan. 2, 1874), under the Redistribution Act of 1872, was 200 up to the last sessions, when there was an increase of 6 members owing to the admission of Prince Edward Island to Confederation. Ontario had 88 members; Quebec, 65; Nova Scotia, 21; New Brunswick, 16; Manitoba, 4; British Columbia, 6.

In the 3rd Parliament (Jan. 2, 1874, to August 17, 1878), and in the 4th Parliament (Aug. 17, 1878, to May 18, 1882) the representation remained as at the dissolution of the 2nd Parliament, viz:—Ontario, 88; Quebec, 65; Nova Scotia, 21; New Brunswick, 16; Manitoba, 4; British Columbia, 6; Prince Edward Island, 6. Total 206.

The representation in the 5th Parliament (Feb. 8, 1883, to Jan. 15, 1887) under the Representation Act of 1887, was increased to 211, the Ontario representation being increased from 88 to 92 and that of Manitoba from 4 to 5.

In the 6th Parliament (Jan. 15, 1887, to Feb. 3, 1891), the representation remained unchanged, except that in 1887 the North-West Territories were granted representation with 4 members, thus making a total representation of 215.

During the 7th Parliament (Feb. 3, 1891, to April 24, 1896) there was no change in the representation.

In the 8th Parliament (April 24, 1896, to Oct. 9, 1900), under the Representation Act of 1892-3, the representation was as follows:—Ontario, 92; Quebec, 65; Nova Scotia, 20; New Brunswick, 14; Manitoba, 7; British Columbia, 6; Prince Edward Island, 5; North-West Territories, 4. Total, 213.

During the 9th Parliament (Oct. 9, 1900, to Sept. 29, 1904), there was but one change in the representation, a seat being added for the Yukon Territory (Chap. 37, 1902). This made 214 members, distributed as follows:—Ontario, 86; Quebec, 65; Nova Scotia, 18; New Brunswick, 13; Manitoba, 10; North-West Territories, 10; British Columbia, 7; Prince Edward Island, 4; Yukon Territory, 1.

The House remained so constituted until the dissolution of the 10th Parliament, September 17, 1908.

During the first session of the Tenth Parliament of Canada (1905) provision was made for the creation of the new provinces of Saskatchewan and Alberta out of part of the North-West Territories, and provision was made for the taking of a census of population in the two new provinces, as also in Manitoba, in the middle year of each decade commencing with 1906. The results of the first quinquennial census made necessary, according to the Saskatchewan and Alberta Acts, a readjustment of the representation of Saskatchewan and Alberta in the House of Commons, and at the session of 1906-07 an amendment was passed to the Representation Act (Chapter 5 of the Revised Statutes, 1906) providing that the House of Commons shall consist of two hundred and twenty-one (221) members, as follows: Ontario, 86; Quebec, 65; Saskatchewan, 10, (a gain of 4); British Columbia, 7; Alberta, 7, (a gain of 3); Prince Edward Island, 4; Yukon Territory, 1.

By a special clause embodied in this Act, it only took effect upon the dissolution of the 10th Parliament.

During the session of 1914 (3rd session 12th Parlt.) a Redistribution Bill was passed, providing for an increase in the number of members of the House of Commons to 235, divided among the provinces as follows:—Ontario, 82; Quebec, 65; Nova Scotia, 16; New Brunswick, 11; Manitoba, 15; British Columbia, 13; Prince Edward Island, 4; Saskatchewan, 16; Alberta, 12; Yukon, 1. Total 235. The new Act came into effect with the dissolution of the 12th Parliament.

During the session of 1923 (2nd of the 14th Parl.) the Government introduced a Redistribution Bill based upon the census of 1921. It was not passed before prorogation and was accordingly re-introduced at the 1924 session and with certain amendments adopted. Under its provisions the Maritime Provinces lose two members; both in Nova Scotia; the Prairie Provinces gain eleven—four going to Alberta, five to Saskatchewan and two to Manitoba. British Columbia gains one. The other provinces remain as at present, as does the representation of Yukon Territory. The net increase in representation for the whole Dominion is, therefore, ten.

The Representation Act, 1933, based on the census of 1931 was passed at the session of 1933 (4th of the 17th Parl.). It reduced the membership of Nova Scotia to 12 and New Brunswick to 10; increasing Alberta to 17, and British Columbia to 16, other Provinces remaining the same. However in 1949, with the Union of Newfoundland, the representation was increased to 262 members.

The Representation Act 1952, based on the Census of 1951 was passed at the Session of 1952 (6th of the 21st Parliament). It reduced Nova Scotia to 12 (13), Manitoba to 14 (16); Saskatchewan to 17 (20); increasing Ontario, 85 (83); Québec, 75 (73); British Columbia, 22 (18); Yukon 1; Mackenzie River (N.W.T.) 1 (1). Other Provinces remained the same.

The representation set forth in the preceding paragraph was superseded on repeal of the Representation Act (when the under-mentioned "Representation Order" became effective on dissolution of the 27th Parliament by virtue of the Electoral Boundaries Readjustment Act, given Royal Assent on November 20, 1964, S.C. 1964-1965 c. 31). The Electoral Boundaries Readjustment Act provides in section 22(2) for the proclamation of a "Representation Order" which shall:

- (a) specify the number of members of the House of Commons who shall be elected for each of the provinces as calculated by the Representation Commissioner under section 12; and
- (b) divide each of the provinces into electoral districts, describe the boundaries of each such district and specify the representation and name to be given thereto, in accordance with the recommendations contained in the reports referred to in subsection (1).

Section 24 provides for the coming into force of the said order by proclamation in the Canada Gazette not later than five days after the issue of this proclamation. This proclamation was published in Part II of The Canada Gazette, Volume 100 Extra, on Monday, June 20, 1966. The new Act provides for the following membership of the House of Commons for subsequent Parliaments after the 27th. The functions, powers and prerogatives of the Canadian House of Commons approximate as closely as may be to those possessed by the Lower House of the Parliament of the United Kingdom. Bills for appropriating any part of the Public Revenue, or for imposing any Tax or Impost, must originate in the House of Commons. It is not lawful for the House of Commons to adopt or pass any vote, Resolution, Address, or Bill for the Appropriation of any Part of the Public Revenue, or of Tax or Impost for any Purpose, that has not been first recommended to the House by Message of the Governor General in the Session in which such Vote, Resolution, Address or Bill is proposed.

In 1887, when the old Northwest Territories were first given representation in the House of Commons, four electoral divisions were created :

(1)—Assiniboia East, adjoining Province of Manitoba; (2) Assiniboia West, next; (3) Alberta, extending to the boundary of British Columbia, and (4) Saskatchewan, in the north. Under the Act of 1903, the two Assiniboias and Saskatchewan were given six seats, namely : Assiniboia East, Assiniboia West, Humboldt, Mackenzie, Qu'Appelle, Saskatchewan. These old divisions practically compose the present province of Saskatchewan, which according to the Act of 1906-07, returns 10 members to the House of Commons, the constituencies being: Assiniboia, Battleford, Humboldt, Mackenzie, Moose Jaw, Prince Albert, Qu'Appelle, Regina, Salcoats and Saskatoon.

Broadly speaking, this constituency was an amalgamation of the Confederation ridings of "Cornwall" and "Stormont". In the Redistribution Act preceding the general elections of 1882, the original two counties disappeared as such; but the new division of "Cornwall and Stormont" replaced them. Owing to the operation of the Redistribution Act, the constituencies of Lisgar and Selkirk changed names after 1891; that is the constituency called Lisgar up to and including 1891 has since been called Selkirk, and vice versa. So in the above table, the figures for the elections up to and including 1891 are for what to that date was known as the constituency of Selkirk, but which territorially is identical, or practically so, with the present constituency of Lisgar.

(1)—The first elections in Marquette after the admission of Manitoba into Confederation was held March 2, 1871. The return of the returning officer showed that each of the two candidates had received the same number of votes. The return officer had not, as now, the right to give his casting vote. In due course the matter came before the H. of C. and was referred to the Commission of Privileges and Electors, who reported that the return officer should (under the old system of double returns) have declared both candidates elected. Under an order of the House (April 25), the Clerk of the Crown in Chancery attended and on motion of the Hon. Mr. Cameron, of Peel, a resolution was passed, instructing the Clerk of the Crown in Chancery to amend the return so as to declare both candidates elected. This was done, and Dr. Lynch, who was present in Ottawa, forthwith subscribed to the oath and took his seat. Then Hon. Mr. Cameron drew attention to the rule which provided that a member must withdraw while the matter of his election was before the House, whereupon Dr. Lynch withdrew. May 13, McKay, having arrived in Ottawa, presented himself and took the oath and his seat. Under similar conditions as Dr. Lynch he withdrew. A delay of six weeks was allowed the Elec. Comm. to enquire into the matter. Before the House finally disposed of the matter Parliament was dissolved. (See Journals of the House.)

(2)—Mr. Cunningham died while the protest against his return was before the courts.

Owing to the operation of the Redistribution Act, the constituencies of Lisgar and Selkirk changed names after 1891, that is, the constituency called Lisgar up to and including 1891 has since been called Selkirk and vice versa. So in the above table the figures for the elections up to, and including 1891, are for what to that date was known as the constituency of Lisgar, but which territorially is identical with the present constituency of Selkirk.

GENERAL ELECTION RESULTS

June 25, 1968

Since Confederation, redistribution or, as it is more properly called, the readjustment of the representation of the Provinces in the House of Commons, had always been carried out by a committee of the House of Commons.

In December, 1963 the Representation Commissioner Act was passed setting up the office and duties of the Representation Commissioner. After some delay, the Electoral Boundaries Readjustment Act was assented to in November, 1964. This piece of legislation set up the machinery for a new method of carrying out a redistribution.

That Act states that after each decennial census, ten commissions are to be established (one for each province) to consider and report upon the readjustment of the representation of the provinces in the House of Commons. Each commission was governed by a population quota and could not deviate from this by more than 25%.

The redistribution was completed in June, 1966 when a proclamation declared the representation order to be in force, effective upon the dissolution of the then existing Parliament. The commissions were obliged to use the 1961 decennial census figures in their work.

Prior to this redistribution there were 265 seats. The number of seats is now 264 and this is as a result of the application of the rules in Section 51 of the British North America Act.

The following shows the comparative number of seats per province before and after the redistribution :

	Members Prior to Redistribution	Present Members
Newfoundland	7	7
Nova Scotia	12	11
Quebec	75	74
Ontario	85	88
Manitoba	14	13
Saskatchewan	17	13
Alberta	17	19
British Columbia	22	23
New Brunswick	10	10
Prince Edward Island	4	4
Yukon	1	1
Northwest Territories	1	1
	<hr/> 265	<hr/> 264

At the general election in June, 1968 there were only four electoral districts which remained exactly the same as at the previous general election. This was mainly due to the population growth and movement since the last redistribution.

As the 1971 census figures become available the whole process of readjustment of the representation will be repeated.

Proclamation of Dissolution of the 27th Parliament dated April 23, 1968.

Nomination Day June 10, 1968.

Polling Day June 25, 1968.

OFFICE OF THE REPRESENTATION COMMISSIONER

The Office of the Representation Commissioner operates under authority of the Representation Commissioner Act (12 Elizabeth II, Chapter 40), in which Act provisions are also made for the Representation Commissioner to administer certain sections of the Canada Elections Act (8-9 Elizabeth II, Chapter 39). With respect to readjusting the representation of the provinces in the House of Commons, which is done after each decennial census by ten commissions (one for each province) established under authority of the Electoral Boundaries Readjustment Act (13 Elizabeth II, Chapter 31), the Representation Commissioner, besides being a member of each of the ten commissions, is responsible for the financial administration of such commissions and for providing them with documents showing the distribution of population in each province and setting out alternative proposals respecting boundaries of electoral districts.

This Act came into force upon the dissolution of 1892.

Sessional Idemnity: Members, $5,000, plus expenses allowance $2,500 and travelling expenses; the Speaker $4,000 and $1,000 for expenses and the Leader of the Opposition, $8,000 per session and an additional $8,000 annually for secretarial and office expenses.

LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY OF ONTARIO

Sessional indemnity $12,000 and expense allowance $6,000; emolument of Mr. Speaker $5,000 in addition to his indemnity and expense allowance as a Member of the Legislative Assembly. (Legislative Assembly Amendment Act, 1968-69.)

Last general election October 17, 1967.

The Legislature at present consists of 117 Members elected by popular vote. After some fluctuation prior to 1933 the membership was reduced to 90 by the Representation Act of 1933. A new Representation Act in 1954 increased the membership to 98 and an amendment thereto in 1963 again increased the membership to 108. In 1966 a new Representation Act increased the membership to the present 117.

Salaries: In addition to his indemnity and allowance as a Member of the Legislative Assembly the Prime Minister receives a salary of $20,000 per annum and an allowance for expenses of representation of $2,000 per annum; similarly, each Minister with portfolio receives a salary as such of $15,000 per annum, as does the Leader of the Opposition, and an allowance for expenses of representation of $2,000 per annum. Ministers without portfolio receive a salary of $5,000 per annum and an allowance for expenses of representation of $1,000 per annum.

SEAT OF GOVERNMENT — WHITEHORSE

The Yukon Territory comprises all that portion of Canada lying north of the Sixtieth Parallel, west of the Northwest Territories. It was created a separate Territory in June 1898 by the Yukon Act.

The Yukon Act of 1898 was revised and consolidated by Chapter 53, Status of Canada 1953, which came into force on the first day of April, 1955. It was amended by 1955 C.23. C.48. Sec. 10 and 1958 C.9. and 1960 C.24. It provides for the Government of the Territory by a Commissioner and Territorial Council. The Commissioner is appointed by the Governor-in-Council and administers the Government of the Territory under instructions from the Governor-in-Council or the Minister of Indian Affairs and Northern Development. The Council of the Yukon Territory is wholly elected and consists of seven members from seven constituencies in the Territory who are elected for a three-year term of office. The legislative powers of the Commissioner in Council are somewhat analogous to the powers of a provincial Lieutenant-Governor and the legislature. The Yukon has its own territorial civil service which carries out the administrative function. The Northern Administration Branch of the Department of Indian Affairs and Northern Development assists by examining and reporting on all Yukon legislation and policies, and acts in an advisory capacity on Yukon territorial matters generally. This Department also administers the natural resources other than game.

SUPREME COURT OF CANADA

The Supreme Court of Canada (as also the Exchequer Court) was constituted in 1875 under "The Supreme and Exchequer Court Act" (38 Vic., Chap. 11). It is now governed by the Supreme Court Act, R.S.C. 1952, c. 259, as amended.

The Supreme Court of Canada has jurisdiction as a Court of appeal in both civil and criminal cases throughout Canada. It is also a Court of appeal in controverted election cases, appeals from the Exchequer Court, and designated Boards set up under Federal Authority, under the Bankruptcy Act and National Defence Act. The jurisdiction for appeals from the Exchequer Court and from the Boards and under Acts referred to are pursuant to the limitations designated in the related Acts. It also has jurisdiction in controversies between the Provinces and the Federal Government when there is a reference respecting the same by the Governor-in-Council. The Supreme Court may also examine and report upon any bill or matter before the Senate or House of Commons, pursuant to the rules in that regard of the Senate or the House of Commons. The judgment of the Court is final and conclusive.

The Supreme Court sits in Ottawa, where the judges are required to reside. Three sessions are held in each year, beginning on the fourth Tuesday in January, the fourth Tuesday in April and the first Tuesday in October.

The Supreme Court as originally constituted on 8th April 1875 consisted of a Chief Justice (whose title is Chief Justice of Canada) and five puisne Judges. The number of puisne judges was increased in 1927 to six and in 1949 to eight, so that the Court now consists of the Chief Justice and eight puisne judges. The judges are appointed by the Governor-in-Council by letters patent under the Great Seal of Canada and they automatically cease to hold office on attaining the age of seventy-five years.

Articles VII and VIII of the letters patent issued under the Great Seal of the United Kingdom (effective 1st October 1947), constituting the office of Governor General and Commander-in-Chief in and over Canada, read as follows:—

VII. And Whereas by The British North America Acts, 1867 to 1946, it is amongst other things enacted that it shall be lawful for Us, if We think fit, to authorize Our Governor General to appoint any person or persons, jointly or severally, to be his Deputy or Deputies within any part or parts of Canada, and in that capacity to exercise, during the pleasure of Our Governor General such of the powers, authorities, and functions of Our Governor General as he may deem it necessary or expedient to assign to such Deputy or Deputies, subject to any limitations or directions from time to time expressed or given by Us: Now We do hereby authorize and empower Our Governor General, subject to such limitations and directions, to appoint any person or persons, jointly or severally, to be his Deputy or Deputies within any part or parts of Canada, and in that capacity to exercise, during his pleasure, such of his powers, functions, and authorities, as he may deem it necessary or expedient to assign to him or them: Provided always, that the appointment of such a Deputy or Deputies shall not affect the exercise of any such power, authority or function by Our Governor General in person.

VIII. And We do hereby declare Our pleasure to be that, in the event of the death, incapacity, removal, or absence of Our Governor General out of Canada, all and every the powers and authorities herein granted to him shall, until Our further pleasure is signified therein, be vested in Our Chief Justice for the time being of Canada, (hereinafter called Our Chief Justice) or, in the case of the death, incapacity, removal or absence out of Canada of Our Chief Justice, then in the Senior Judge for the time being of the Supreme Court of Canada, then residing in Canada and not being under incapacity; such Chief Justice or Senior Judge of the Supreme Court of Canada, while the said powers and authorities are vested in him, to be known as Our Administrator.

Provided always, that the said Senior Judge shall act in the administration of the Government only if and when Our Chief Justice shall not be present within Canada and capable of administering the Government.

Provided further that no such powers or authorities shall vest in such Chief Justice, or other judge of the Supreme Court of Canada, until he shall have taken the Oaths appointed to be taken by Our Governor General.

Provided further that whenever and so often as Our Governor General shall be temporarily absent from Canada, with Our permission, for a period not exceeding one month, then and in every such case Our Governor General may continue to exercise all and every the powers vested in him as fully as if he were residing within Canada, including the power to appoint a Deputy or Deputies as provided in the Eighth Clause of these Our Letters Patent.

The right of the Administrator to be styled "His Excellency" was asserted by Sir H. Elzear Taschereau, formerly Chief Justice, while acting as Administrator in the interval between the departure of the Earl of Minto and the arrival of His Excellency Earl Grey, and he was informed by the Secretary of State for the Colonies, in reply to an inquiry, that "the Administrator was rightly styled "His Excellency". By paragraph vii of the Letters Patent, authorized by the British North America Acts, the Governor General may appoint a Deputy. During the absence of the Governor General from Ottawa but within Canada the Chief Justice is usually appointed Deputy Governor General.

By Royal Letters Patent dated September 8th, 1947, and effective October 1st, 1947, the office of Governor General and Commander-in-Chief in and over Canada was constituted. By paragraph viii thereof, in the event of the death, incapacity, removal or absence of the Governor General out of Canada, all his powers and authorities are vested in the Chief Justice of Canada.

The International Joint Commission was established in 1909 by a treaty between the United States of America, Canada and Great Britain. This treaty was confirmed and sanctioned by The International Boundary Waters Treaty Act (S.C., 1911, Chapter 28, as amended).

OFFICIAL PRECEDENCE

The establishment and the maintenance of tables or scales of official precedence result from the fact that in all nations and communities there are individuals, who, because they have had entrusted to them by the nation the performance of certain responsible and honourable official or communal functions, are by common accord regarded, either for the time being, or permanently as occupying positions of various degrees of eminence.

In the old patriarchal communities social pre-eminence was naturally accorded to the heads of the tribal families, and precedence throughout the tribes was generally regulated by the seniority of the sons of the patriarchs and the individuals of their families. Of course there were exceptions to this rule, due to the personal ambitions and achievements of individuals.

Since nations have been evolved from the old tribal organizations, an official class of citizens has been developed, comprising those who, besides occupying the usual position of members of the state, have entrusted to them the execution of what have been described as the life functions of the nation; that is such functions as are peculiar to the civic organization in contra-distinction to the general functions exercised and actions performed by individual citizens as independent units. Official service calls in a special degree for a sense of duty to the public trust, and in many cases for a spirit of sacrifice and, if need be, self effacement. In recognition of these conditions, and often for very practical state reasons, special privileges are granted to certain of the more responsible officials within the spheres appointed for them.

"Precedence" has been defined as the priority of place, or superiority in rank, in the conventional system of arrangement under which the more eminent and dignified orders of a community are classified on occasion of public ceremony and in the intercourse of private life.

Public functions of some form or another occur with more or less frequency in every state, and those who serve and represent the people in official capacities are necessarily the principal, often the only, participants. An ordinary sense of decency, not to speak of dignity or that wholesome sense of national pride which exists in all races, demands that such functions be orderly, and that places of honour be given to those entrusted by the nation with the administration of its affairs and the guardianship of its interests and honour, and thus, in a very special sense, representing it.

"Tables" or "Scales" of Precedence emanate from the Crown, and they are issued under authority of the Sovereign. The Crown is "the fountain of honour," and it is its undoubted prerogative to confer on any of its subjects, in any part of its dominions, such titles and distinctions and such rank and place "as to it may seem meet and convenient." Its discretion is limited in those cases only wherein it has been submitted to restraint by Act of Parliament.

There is not any complete and comprehensive code whereby the scheme of social gradation has been defined and settled, once and for all, on a permanent foundation. The principles and rules at present controlling it have been formulated at different periods and have been derived from various sources.

In Britain, questions of precedence came in the ordinary course of things within the jurisdiction of the Courts of Chivalry in which figured such picturesque officials as lord high constables, earl marshals, kings of arms, heralds, pursuivants, etc. Points of unusual moment were referred to and decided by the sovereign in person. the privy council, or parliament.

Although there were "estates" titles and orders of various degrees in England from earliest historical times the oldest English table of precedence in existence is the "Order of All Estates of Nobles and Gentry" prepared for the coronation of Henry IV in 1399.

In the thirty-first year of King Henry VIII, Parliament, by statutory enactment, took cognizance of Precedence. It then passed the "Act for Placing the Lords," which, although it concerned directly only the Great Officers of State, and referred but incidentally to the places of the Nobility, has since been considered the chief authority for the marshalling of dignitaries.

This Act was originated, it is important to remember, by the desire of the King and it is declared, as a preliminary, that "although it appertained altogether to the Royal Prerogative to give such honour, reputation, and placing to his Councillors and others his subjects as should be seeming to the King's most excellent wisdom, the King was nevertheless pleased and contented for an order to be had and taken in his Most High Court of Parliament for the placing of the Great Officers and Lords."

The Statute of Henry VIII was in the nature of a declaratory Act, confirming the ancient and pre-existing Law of Precedence, and, in confirmation of this, it is a matter of historical fact that the advice of Garter King of Arms was taken before the bill was brought in. This Act of King Henry VIII's parliament still remains the only legislative measure in which it has been attempted to deal directly and systematically with any large and important section of the English scale or Table of Precedence. (There are separate tables for Scotland, Ireland, Wales, Canada and other Commonwealth Countries and the Crown Colonies.)

Where no act of Parliament applies, precedence is determined by the will of the Sovereign or by what is accepted as ancient "usage and established custom."

Precedence in Canada is governed by the Table of Precedence for Canada, approved December 19, 1968, by the Queen of Canada on the advice of the Governor General in Council, shown below.
